CHAMPAGNE

DOM PERIGNON 10000

The flag for Champagne around the world and it does so without being too strident or delicate. Everything is kept to a deceptively simple balance. The aroma is perfect, touches of light tastiness, broad yeastiness and hints of a Cognac like richness.

MOET & CHANDON BRUT IMPERIAL 5000

A good length that is clean and full of apple & honey notes. Richness and softness fills the finish with a clean aftertaste.

LANSON BLACK LABEL BRUT 5000

Firm and mine rally, with a smoky undertow and well meshed flavors of toasted walnut, pear tart, lemon meringue and fleur De sell riding the creamy mousse.

LAURENT-PERRIER BRUT 5000

There are scents of white flowers, peach and crispy apple, while some sweet citrus brings out the freshness and suffused grill note and one of caramel.

ANDRE SIMON BRUT 3200

A dry and delicate Champagne with creamy fruit flavor and Lingering richness. Produced by Lanson International.

Mumm CORDON ROUGE 4000

Pale yellow with delicate bubbles; the nose reveals aromas of citrus, apple, toast and yeast; the palate is extra-dry, medium to full body with flavors of crisp green apple, citrus and a more biscuit notes.

PIPER-HEIDSIECK 6000

Light gold. Clean, expressive nose of ripe white fruits with a pleasant hint of almond. Polished, creamy attack on the palate offering the same fresh aromas. The finish stays crisp with drive and linger.
